Shades of night are fallen
As the wind begins to sigh,
And the world is silhouetted
'Gainst the sky.
Blue Shadows on the Trail,
Blue moon shinin' through the trees,
And the plaintive wail from the distance
Comes a driftin' on the evening breeze.
Move along blue shadows, move along,
Soon the dawn will come and you'll be on your way,
But until the darkness sheds its veil
They'll be Blue Shadows on the Trail.
Move along blue shadowsm move along,
Soon the dawn will come and you'll be on your way,
But until the darkness sheds it veil
They'll be Blue Shadows on the Trail.
