Don't you ever feel like screaming
At the top of your lungs for no reason
In the middle of a crowded place
And people stare at you like you are from outer space
And don't your ever feel like dreaming
Trying to grab something when you can't quite reach it
But you know if you work a little harder
You might be able to get it if you stretch a little farther
And don't you ever feel like taking a risk
Even if it really doesn't make any sense
How will you ever know what you are capable of
If you don't step outside of your box and make an attempt
And don't you ever feel so overwhelmed
Send out an S.O.S. but ain't no one help
Feeling lonely and all by yourself
Want to hide and never climb outside of your shell
Then there is days you feel quite the opposite
Far from a pessimist more like an optimist
You love the grind and the feeling of accomplishment
Your light shines and you beam with such confidence
Don't you ever get the urge to want to open doors
See what lies behind the ones that were closed before Won't you ever want to change what you are going for
And don't you ever get the feeling that there is so much more

Yeah so dare to explore
And challenge yourself
To reach heights you never seen before
Go ahead and touch the sky
Life is much to shore
Don't ever settle for less
If you want it the world can be yours

Don't you ever feel like moving away
To a place where they don't know your name or face
Leave everything behind but your one suitcase
Take what you love and the rest replace
And don't you ever feel like starting from scratch
Erase every mistake you made in the past

Slow life down when it is moving to fast
Change your direction before you crash
And don't you ever feel like taking a leap
Don't you feel trapped inside is someone unique
Caught in the same routine every week
Feeling like your life is so incomplete
So don't you ever feel like breaking the mold
Trying something new and letting go of the old
Take a different path and let the same erode
You got to take a risk if you plan to grow

Yeah so dare to explore
And challenge yourself
To reach heights you never seen before
Go ahead and touch the sky
Life is much to shore
Don't ever settle for less
If you want it the world can be yours

Everyone's got a gift but
What you gonna do with it
Everyone's got a gift but
What you gonna do with it
Everyone's got a gift but
What you gonna do with it

I don't want the whole world just a piece of it
I don't want the whole thing you can keep it
I don't want to try to carry the weight
Give me three wishes be patient and wait for me
To decide that I've got dreams
But most of them were pushed to the side
Don't push me off the edge unless you are sure I can fly
But if you are so sure how come I can't See this same potential when I look at myself in the mirror
And I feel so inferior insecure because my security was shattered
When I answered the call and stood face to face with the truth
There is no way to return to the days of my youth
Only a coward runs away and escapes from reality
A coward backs down when a situation is challenging
The power of love with define my courage
When I seek your face and define my purpose

Yeah so dare to explore
And challenge yourself
To reach heights you never seen before
Go ahead and touch the sky

Life is much to shore
Don't ever settle for less
If you want it the world can be yours
Everyone's got a gift but
What you gonna do with it

At some point everybody is going to fail but
When you get there refuse to quit

And everyone's got dreams but
What you gonna do with yours

Don't you ever feel like
I said don't you ever feel like
You want so much more
I want so much more
Don't you want so much more

Yeah so dare to explore
And challenge yourself
To reach heights you never seen before
Go ahead and touch the sky
Life is much to shore
Don't ever settle for less
If you want it the world can be yours
