f/ Slug

In this life time you don't have to prove nothing to nobody except yourself

And after what you've gone through if you haven't done that by now

It ain't gonna never happen

Yo, hey y'all I'm never what you'd expect me to be

Clever like that just when you cats think you know me

Never let the negativity hold or stop me

Never forget all this what hip-hop has taught me

And even though the Prophets might never get signed

Never drop a video or go platinum with the rhymes

It'll be cool just to knowin that we've touched a few and rocked the mic with some of the dopest emcees too

You'll never catch jas giving anything less than my all

And I'll forever be with Madsun until the day I fall

I'll never be as dope as you dawg but I can live with that

You'll always get love from me but you;ll never give it back

I'll never see a million dollars in this life time

And you'll never be blessed to have a woman quite like mine

To gain respect is a never ending journey
'Cos I'll always be Jes and I guess I'm never worthy Never could my voice lay down and die
Gimme one good eye to see my influence fly
Forever I'll try to win genuine smiles
'Cos I've planted my style across a million miles
I've never turned my back on the heads I entrap
Mic check, need a breath keep a step on the path
Never loose sight of what this is to me
And how it helps my plight to let everyone else see I'll never go out of my way to hold you back I'm just here to make your head rock maybe make your shoes tap
And with some luck maybe I can stuck within your memory
remember me the one that does give a --what-- [Chorus: repeat 2X]
I will never be you and you will never be me
But I'm like whatever we can work together and see
And all we need is the sun and some water for this tree
And we can all get free even I can get free
And yo I'll never forget those that always believed
And the ones who gave us R-E-S-P-E-C-T Yo I'll never be the MC that you want me to be There'll always be something I do or sayin that you won't agree
Thats my individuality o-riginality

Even though some of y'all get pissed off and mad at me

Never forget my family or where I'm from

And never blame others for the wrong I've done

Yo I'll never hold a grudge

I say peace and show love

Never believe one day i'd be rhymin with Slug

Never know the abilities that you possess

Til you find yourself and lay all assumptions to rest

I'll never stop writing when theres no ink left

It'll never stop flowing even when theres no breath

And I'll never find the words that describe my mind

Yo I'll never stop looking

I'll never stop trying

Better believe I'll never be the best work worker

Instead I use the soul and take the flo further

I never rhyme about guns, selling drugs or murder

Sooner see a future of flippin' burgers

I'll never forget about the city that raised me

The women I've chased and the cops that have chased me

The people that pushed me to become who I am

And everyone that came to the jam --like damn--

I'll never be the freshest

Never be the dopest even though sometimes its hopeless I'll never loose focus

I'll never be afraid to show the depth of my emotions

Theres a side of me thats deeper than the belly of the ocean

I'll never be the smartest

Never be the brightest

I'll never be the hardest

never be the tightest

On the mic I'll be just your average joe never more

But I been more dedicated than ever before

I never give up

Never call it quits

You can never hold me down and I never did like you fool around

I never, kife for me ain't never been easy y'all believe me

I try to keep possitive no matter the weather and no matter what

I'll never say never

[Chorus]
