I have been around
Searching for the sound
Now it's on my mind
You are what I find

So let us come together
Knowing my heart
You have got to trust me
Now we can start
Just come and hold me, take me baby

Why have we to wait so long
People say we are far to young
Cant you see thats wrong?

A calling telephone tells me you are alone
So let me take you out, there can be no doubt

So let us come together
Knowing my heart
You have got to trust me
Now we can start
Just come and hold me, take me baby

Why have we to wait so long
People say we are far to young
Cant you see thats wrong?

Don't care what people say
They'll understand one day
Just let me hold you take you baby oh yeah

Why have we to wait so long
People say we are far to young

Why have we to wait so long
People say we are far to young

Why have we to wait so long
People say we are far to young
