[Incomprehensible]
Pretty fingers on the phone
Non violent grace, this religion
No one wants to be alone

Reclaim the rust that northern birds take
It like a song that in their feet
[Incomprehensible] on the radio
Take a little time on Cherokees tree

Chaos and precision with a smile
Sipping summer in the shade
Thoughts for the plane with brown eyes waiting
Guitar, careless whirlwind, belief gets made

Carrying on so far under the cross
Manifestos to keep us sane
The time is so weary of conflict
Silent answers, silent name

I can't stand anymore decisions
I can't stand anymore decisions
