I cannot seem to overlook you
I've tried for years now
But you just keep coming back
I put my trust in your reality
Still you had to overreach me this way

What comes hereafter
I don't know
So cold as things go

Time & again you fulfilled me
What am I to do without you here
Even though I don't want you around me
How can I go on when you're not near

For long I've tried to break away
I may be craving
But I won't be slipping back
At every turn I ruminate on you
There is no switch off
I just have to submit

What comes hereafter
I don't know
So cold as things go

Time & again you fulfilled me
What am I to do without you here
Even though I don't want you around me
How can I go on when you're not near

My - life - is - yours!

Time & again you fulfilled me
What am I to do without you here
Even though I don't want you around me
How can I go on when you're not near

Time & again you fulfilled me
What am I to do without you here
Even though I don't want you around me

How can I go on when you're not near
