Eyereflector
Throwing back a symbol of dark transparency
And shadows rendered pale
Strangulated microcosm
cracked mirror of the soul
Spirit changed beyond recognition
tarnished and frail

Wakefulness or an allusive dream?
Seeking shelter in a maze
Bearing witness to the unforeseen
Vanishing without a trace

Returning to the end
Of all that will not mend
A thousand griefs transcend Recover and extend

Eyereflector
Throwing back a symbol
of dark transparency
And shadows rendered pale
Strangulated microcosm
cracked mirror of the soul
Spirit changed beyond recognition
tarnished and frail

Wakefulness or an allusive dream?
Seeking shelter in a maze
Bearing witness to the unforeseen
Vanishing without a trace

Wakefulness or an allusive dream?
Bearing witness to the unforeseen
Vanishing without a trace
