We're a city on a hill
Let it burn, burn, burn for you
We are the melodies and the music
Of your beautiful love

We'll carry these torches
And let this fire burn
To the tops of these mountains
For the glory of you

Take these luminaries and be beautiful

He goes to the streets with his arms stretched out for what
For me
For you
For love
Of another
And Why does he dance?
For me
For you
For love
Of another

We'll burn
Oh so brightly
Cause he's coming back
And I won't be hiding

We'll burn, burning so brightly
So when you return, you'll know where to find me
