"Feel Again"

Visit "Feel Again" on MotoLyrics.com

My mind was restless and my body was weak
I was abandoned by my muse
The days were passing just like fence-posts and sheep
And I just let them go
And I just let them go

Just a little fling
Just a little pain
Just a little of something to make me feel again
Just a little tornado
Or just a little rain
Anything that helps me so I can feel again

So I can feel again

And all the summer days, I spent them inside just listening to the kids and cars
No clue, no will, no want just quiet and white
And I just let it go
Yes I just let it go
