Maybe I belong among the stars
Maybe I'm destined to sing in bars
Maybe I'm the one who flies to Mars
I just can't guess
It's such a mess

Do I get an excellent degree?
Do I act as if I'm really me?
Will I spend the spring in misery?
I just can't guess
It's such a mess

Laying on my back
I stare into the universe
Sunshine philosophy
And if you don't agree
-just let me be

Will I be a robber or a cop?
Why do people work until they drop?
Will the fighting bloody wars ever stop?
I just can't guess
It's such a messy
