[Jed]

She's in her own world
Celebrity girl
She doesn't know what life's like down here
She's been sold, she's been bought
Corporation Property
How in this world can she be happy ?

(Chorus:)

How can she sell herself so blindly ?
Her imperfections disguised so finely
Adored by so many but nobody knows her
What will she tell herself when she's older ?

She shows off her skin
Delivered to sin
A pre-packed teenage fantasy
Identity lost, but at what cost ?
Advertising property
How can she wake up to reality ?

(Chorus:)

Absorbed in a world of lies and illusions
Always choosing the easy solutions
But now she's a product ? no longer a person
Mass perversion of her physical version

She lasers her face
It's such a disgrace
Her image is just an illusion
She enlarged her breasts, to be a success
Pornography property
Trapped in her world of confusion

(Chorus:)

How can she sell herself so blindly ?
Her imperfections disguised so finely
Adored by so many but nobody knows her
What will she tell herself when she's older ?
