[Jed]

Droplets of light
Piercing through this ever-lasting darkness
Searching for life
So we don't have to feel so alien
What is the price?
To send my soul back into the light
Would it feel right?
To crawl out from the blackness of the night

(Chorus:)

Come with me
I don't wanna be where you ain't gonna be Fly with me
We can search the distant galaxies
Dream with me
Connect to our sub-conscious unity
Trust in me
Cos heaven's gonna be wherever we will be

Hold on tight
I don't want us to have separate destinies
I would fight
Against any force trying to tear us apart
Fate entwined
Is the only kind of fate I've ever dreamed
Love's divine
The bliss we have will push through any boundaries of time

(Chorus)

Be my light
Shine it upon me like a warm sun
Raise my heights
In spiritual bliss where we were meant to be
Take a dive
Swim in to the depths of eternity
You & I
In your arms is where I want to live and die

(Chorus)
