I think I lost another friend today
He says he's gotta go but he'd like to stay
Is it because we don't see life the same way
Or maybe I should lie and say,
"Everything's ok, everything's ok."

I think I lost another friend today
She says she's gotta go but she'd like to stay
Is it because we don't see love the same way
Or maybe I should lie and say,
"Everything's ok, everything's ok."

Well maybe I should lie and say,
"Well everything's ok."
(7x)

Well maybe I should lie and say,
"Then everything's ok."
