How are you
Written on the wall there was this punk rock tag Hell a good style but the rhythm and stuff was Pretty much the same

I pick up the pieces about how and who committed this crime
The tip on the backdoor said that we were too old to cry
Enough with the donnuts with chocolate chips
The story should have been written in espaÃ±ol

DÃ¡jame robarte para asÃ­ poder tomarte
En la historia en que todos mueren al final
DÃ¡jame zurcirte para asÃ­ yo descoserte
Construimos una historia sin final

I take all the pieces about how and who committed this
crime
The tip on the backdoor said that we were too drunk too drive
Enough with the pain enough with the love stories
Enough with the dunkin donnuts
The story she wrote
Like the other old stories were as much and pretty boring
Isn't you what you're looking for but always afraid

DÃ¡jame robarte para asÃ­ poder tomarte
En la historia en que todos mueren al final
DÃ¡jame zurcirte para asÃ­ yo descoserte
Construimos una historia sin final

How are you
Written on the wall there was this punk rock tag
Held a good style but their rhythm and stuff was Pretty much the same

DÃ¡jame robarte para asÃ­ poder tomarte
Construimos una historia sin final
