I'm on the edge of this cliff
Tryna hold on as tight as I can
But my arms are so weak
Don't know how much longer I can hang
I feel my fingertips slipping
But there's nothing else around to hold on to Except the memories the way things used to be
But we can never be

Chorus

Save yourself
Sometimes you gotta save your heart and no one else
Sometimes you gotta save your heart and no one else
You gotta
Save yourself
Sometimes you gotta save your heart and no one else
Sometimes you gotta save your heart and no one else

No one else(x2)

Verse

Now what happens when the planes burn down
What happens when the water runs dry
That means our relationship has taken it's course
There no where?
We used to be so in tuned now I can't even read you
Baby there's no point in fooling ourselves
In believing thigs need to be the way they were oh

Chorus

Save yourself no one else
Save yourself no one else
Save yourself no one else
Save yourself no one else

You gotta save yourself
Baby and no one else
You gotta save yourself
Baby and no one else

Chorus
