When I fall
You fall after me
When I lose my grip
You catch me
You're like an angel
Watching over me from the sky
Making sure I'm still alive

Observing every move I make
When I can't find you
When you seem to be missing
I look up
I can almost see your face
Looking down on me
Observing every move I make

Looking out over the horizon
Making sure I'm safe
From all this terror
That hides on the streets
Making sure I can make it through
Another day
The world ain't like it used to be
Not anymore

And that's why I'm glad I have you watching over me
My guardian angel
It seems
Cause you're always

(Chorus)

You're always watching over me
Making sure I'm safe
Keeping me away from the evil things in this life
And I ask why are you looking out for a girl like me
Why do you try to protect me
Keep me alive
Helping me through this tough world
Every time you save me
I can almost see your shadow

I can almost see your face
I gotta admit I'm grateful
No one has ever loved me much
But why are you looking out for a girl like me

(Chorus)

Why do you always observe every move I make
