if i had it my way
i would make you stay
i would rescue you away from him well not really rescue but make you choose what you know you can't afford to lose sometimes what's best ain't best for you and life's too short to hold on to something that you know is gonna be trouble cos that ain't the way it's suppose to be yeah

though she's lost in love with me i still think it's best i leave
cos i know if i stay it's only gonna hurt me when you go back to him
deep down i know we're meant to be
but i know she could never leave
yeah it's the right love
but just at the wrong time
so i just think it's best if i leave, leave, leave
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (think it's best if i leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave (think it's best if i leave)

now pressure is the last thing that i want on you it's hard enough being in love with two dudes cos (help me out with the missing line thx) and i'm tryna score even if that means that homie has to lose cos sometimes what's best ain't best for you

i still think it's best i leave
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)

never thought that love would be so hard sometimes i wish i'd never met you at all
cos his what's best for you,
you're what's best for me
think it's best i leave, leave, leave

if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
if i leave, leave, leave (leave)
oh if i leave, if i leave, if i leave think it's best if i leave
