I believe in love, I believe in trust.
I believe in our things, Important to us.
Everyday ain't clear that it what lifes about
that's weather in the storm & working things out.
Take a look in the mirror & you'll see the picture,
A picture of you, you, you.
Know when you point the finger,
Remember theres 3 pointin right back at you, you, you.

When it rains it pours, We dont get wet, We get soaked.
You see the storm is ours,
Love it may rain, But we can't give up.
When it rain it pours, when it rain it pours,
when it rain it pours, When it rain,
When it rain it pours, It rain, When it rain it pours,
When it rain it pours, it rain, when it rain it pours.

Giving up would be foolish,
Never give up on someone that you think about everyday.
Just inlove when the sun shines,
When the forecast is perfect & the rain fall is gone away.
Take a look in the mirror & you'll see the picture,
The picture of you, you, you.
Know when you point the finger,
Remember theres 3 pointin right back at you, you.

When it rains it pours, We dont get wet, We get soaked.
You see the storm is ours,
Love it may rain, But we can't give up.
When it rain it pours, when it rain it pours,
when it rain it pours, When it rain,
When it rain it pours, It rain, When it rain it pours,
When it rain it pours, it rain, when it rain it pours.

It rain, When it rain it pours, When it rain it pours,
It rain, When it rain it pours.
