"My Discovery"

Every night I feel I am waiting
I am almost anticipating love
Yes love
Even when I feel it fainting
You come to me demonstrating
Love oh love
Can't escape the season changing
You should be here in my arms

No more run to cover
No more reason lie
Now the rain is over
There is no... wonder
Something really tragic...
Something that comes once in a lifetime
When we found the greatest discovery

I wish I could have dodged
From bombing into you
If only I would have taken another round
My heart wouldn't be so
