Open your eyes now, what do you see?
Is the view different? It is to me
The view of love can sometimes change
Some prefer the sunlight and some like the rain

If you are the sun, I'm the rain
Look at the time now, what do you feel?
Don't you have to go now away from here?
The time for lovers sometimes end
Sometimes can be strained
I must leave again

If you are the sun, I'm the rain
Look at the time now, what do you feel?
You are the sun and I was the rain
Open your eyes now, do I look the same?

If you are the sun, I'm the rain
You are the sun, I am the rain
You are the sun, I'm the rain
