Decided to leave my past years to the gods
It wouldn't be fair,
it wouldn't be right
To choose myself to be the judge

I learned to keep my mouth shut and I tried to understand That you must have a good heart
if you could win,
my mother's hand

I'm sorry mother
there must be another reason
I'm sorry mother
but now we are done!

She was caught in middle,
wanted to save her from wars
So I started to live for the day
I could move my life outdoors

The distance burried,
my thoughts of revenge
It was a releif to think of you as a friend
Now it occurs to me,
how we have changed Since I've grown up,
it suddenly stopped

I'm sorry mother
there must be another reason
I'm sorry mother
but now we are done
