We best start this off with a meeting
I'm getting wrapped up in the games you play
That only end with your foot
Planted to my chest and

We are a serious of bad mistakes
You make when your guard slips down
But I'm getting off my knees right now
I'm getting off my knees

You're so predictable and
You're just too beautiful for your own good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go

So let's keep this up with a meeting
And I'm getting wrapped up in the things you say
That get you out of everything you've done

I am a series of bad heartbreaks
That left me insecure
But I'm a little too good for you
I'm a little too good

You're so predictable and
You're just too beautiful for your own good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and
Concentrate
Compose yourself
You gotta make us think you're innocent
You were so good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go

You're predictable and
You're just too beautiful for your own good
Take your eyes off of the mirror and
Concentrate
Compose yourself
You gotta make us think your innocent
You were so good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby

You're so predictable and

You're just too beautiful for your own good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and
Concentrate
Compose yourself
You gotta make us think your innocent
You were so good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go

You're so predictable and
You're just too beautiful for your own good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and
Concentrate
Compose yourself
You gotta make is think you're innocent
You were so good
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go

Stand outside your window screaming
I trust you
Your actions are so misleading
One way to track you down
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go
Stand outside your window screaming
I trust you
Your actions are so misleading
One way to track you down
Take your eyes off of the mirror baby and go
