After all
They made them robed
Repeating all
To live in her wall

Something you'll show me a chance
Wearing a mask
But not before
She's going places she should have never been
She should have never been

After all
They made them robed
Repeating all
To live in her wall

Something you'll show me a chance
Wearing a mask
But not before
She's going places she should have never been
She should have never been

Something you'll show me a chance
Wearing a mask
But not before
She's going places she should have never been
She should have never been
