They desecrate everything we stand for gnawing on every corner they feed
Our last breath is their salvation they'll never see us begging on our knees

How could they say that we're accountable
For slit wrists and bloodshot eyes
All hail and glorify the manufactured ones
For the marvelous plan that they've devised

You'll burn eternally kiss your kingdom goodbye We'll rise in victory when everything turns to dust... to dust

Bring me the children for they are truly blessed for they know what songs to sing Watch their fists raised high in unison against dictators so menacing

How could you claim what was never yours
Integrity has no price at all
All hail and glorify the manufactured ones
Behold the traitors in this very hall

You'll burn eternally a penalty you can't deny
The wrath inside of me summoning the stormy skies Death you deserve (tonight) triumphant all of us We'll remain unscarred when everything turns to dust...
to dust

Oh children of the night arise and join us now This is mutiny towards victory their tyranny won't be allowed
Our dignity is in peril we will heed the trumpet's call
This is fate this is destiny and they are bound to fall

Your time is running out...

The hungry will eat tonight and it won't be just crumbs
The crippled will walk again never to kiss the ground Since the day you reigned supreme we have waited for this chance

This is us and our rebellion this is our militance.
