No matter what anyone says time doesn't pull you through 'Cause there are nights when I still cry when I think of you
Sometimes it swallows me this space I feel inside
But I think of how strong you were and it helps me to get by

And all the times when you would come to me in my dreams
I thought I was losing my mind, but it's the sanest I've ever been
And on those days when life seems too much I hear your voice and I'm comforted by your touch

On nights like this I know that you're still here with me
On nights like this I know you're in a better place On nights like this I pray I may be with you again someday
On nights like this I pray that I may be worthy someday

There's the anger that blocked out the light There's the doubts that held me captive night after night
The endless hours I spent asking why When there's so many evil people, it just Doesn't seem right on nights like this I know that you're still here with me on nights like this I know you're in a better place on nights like this I pray

I may be with you again someday on nights like this I pray

That I may be worthy someday
And I remember the night when I held you in my arms Trying to give you the strength, the will to hold on And you looked in my eyes and said
