"Stay A While"

as they were being said i wished those words were dead they grow and grow and grow in our heads they linger, linger and haunt us days on end it was all in a moment of anger these daggers that i threw they're still deeply embedded into you i swear i fear there's nothing i can do stay a while young is the night give me a chance to set things right don't you throw away those years of love over one night when the love went wrong

stay a while young is the night
give me a chance to set things right
don't you throw away those years of love
over one night when the love went wrong

i can see it in your eyes in the way you look at me mistrust has now replaced intimacy i feel you drifting drifting far away from me

give me a chance to set things right
don't you throw away those years of love
over one night when the love went wrong
over one night when the love went wrong

i swear, i will fight this i vow not to lose i'll be damned if this destroys us i'll be damned if i lose you

give me a chance to set things right
don't you throw away those years of love
over one night when the love went wrong
stay a while young is the night
give me a chance to set things right

over one night when the love went wrong
over one night when the love went wrong
