She calls tonight to let go.
A vision of the past that I know.
Departed from a dream dark angel.
No matter what you seem (to be).
But our love is meant to be... yeah.

Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
Who's to say our hearts won't fuse forever.
Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
Who's to say time will kill all of us all.

My love's a contradiction.
My love's a gleaming black throne.
Housing Kings without Queens.
It's more than possible, and I
Slit the throat of every living rose.
Fighting for a breathful breathe.
Buried deep under regret.
Tied tight to every living soul.

Bleeding Rain she calls my name in diamonds.
Who's to say our hearts won't fuse forever.
Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
Who's to say time won't be the end of us all.

Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
She calls out my name in diamonds.
Bleeding Rain she calls my name in diamonds.
Who's to say our hearts won't fuse forever.
Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
Bleeding Rain she calls out my name in diamonds.
She calls out my name in diamonds.
She calls out my name in diamonds.
