From far away, in the forest where i go, comes to my ears, the howling of a Wolf... wolf!.
Terrible things waits for me, but blood calls, the path of seventh moon,
Burns in my skin.
I'm running through the trees, with a black storm
starting in my eyes. I Feel my blood. I fell the fire, burning all the land, and all is left is
This silence of a darkest night, the Wolf invincible, the reign... into the Shadows.
Slowly, my senses sharpening. I can smell everything in the air. A Supernatural energy. impels-me. i'm awakening to my new being.
I'm running through the trees, with a black storm
starting in my eyes. I Feel my blood. I fell the fire, burning all the land, and all is left is
This silence of a darkest night, the Wolf invincible, the
reign... into the Shadows.
Brother wolf, now i walk beside you,,, and we share the pray.
