Could you kill the one who's there to save your life?
Could you bleed the heart that you once loved dry?
And how many times will you call my name tonight
Begging for an answer impossible to find?

This will be your last breath tonight (tonight)
This will be you last breath tonight (tonight)
My heart will burn
My heart will burn

This will be the time when evil hearts collide
This will be the blood that brings us back to life

This will be your last breath tonight (tonight)
(I want our lives, I want our lives)
This will be you last breath tonight (tonight)
(I want our lives, I want our lives)
My heart will burn
My heart will burn

The sky is dark, our eyes look like fire
The time has come, the time has come
Our lips touch; our hearts' blood

This will be your last breath tonight (tonight)
(I want our lives, I want our lives)
This will be you last breath tonight (tonight)
(I want our lives, I want our lives)
My heart will burn tonight (tonight)
My heart will burn tonight
