Take as yours (the) breath of timeless wind and sing
the song of Maldoror
A virulent outburst of thoughts Hill illuminate dark depths of mind (your true nature will be revealed to you) Dark is our name, violent our conception, horror finders is all we are Ghastly dreams disturb my sleep, new bad thought
takes roots in my soul
So reality comes and I'm the ghoul searching for new ways of horror
Your true name will be revealed to you, appear innocently, unprejudiced to this new universe of emotions
Ghastly dreams disturb my sleep, new bad thought
takes roots in my soul
So reality comes and I'm the ghoul searching for new ways of of horror
I'm the shadow behind you, imagining how to cause pain
Take as yours (the) breath of timeless wind and sing
the song of Maldoror
A virulent outburst of thoughts
Hill illuminate dark depths of mind (your true nature
will be revealed to you)
Dark is our nature, violent our conception, horror finders is all we are Your true nature will be revealed to you Appear innocently, unprejudiced to this new universe of emotions
We arn't monsters, just humans, to much human.
