I've had my time, I've had my moments to shine
It seems so far away, it feels so down
I fall apart if you don't hold me tight
This time there's nothing left to try

Yeah, it's something that would make me older
Yeah, it's something that would brake me
If I'd break it, it will keep me younger
If I'd feel it, it would break me

I've had enough, enough of all the worries and doubts
You've captured my heart and break it
I've had enough, enough I'm going down
You limit me, I'm begging you to leave!

[X2]
Yeah, something gonna make me older
Yeah, something gonna brake me

If I'd break it, it will keep me younger
If I'd feel it, it would break me

[LYRICS BY ZION]

[X2]
Break it and I will live this life
Feel it and I will not survive
Worries, I have to deal somehow!

Yeah, it's something that would make me older
Yeah, it's something that would brake me
(I have to deal somehow!)
If I'd break it, it will keep me younger
If I'd feel it, it would break me

Yeah, it's something that would make me older
(I have to deal somehow!)
If I'd break it, it will keep me younger
If I'd feel it, it would break me.
