

Sorrow "Faceless"

Visit "Faceless" on MotoLyrics.com

Words that are sealed in blood
Your tongue speaks dishonestly
Whatever leaves your lips
Insanity

The truth is eloquent
A vision not mine to share
Whatever is hiding in your shell
Disgusting and cruel

Tempted by sirens
Tempted by blood
Just try to resist them
Be your own god

Keep breeding your lies
It leads us to fall from the sky
A look in your eyes
I see that our past was alie
You once meant the world
Now I can see right through you
The promise you broke
I see right through you

The facts they show no doubt
You're nothing than a nameless face
Whatever is hiding in your shell
Disgusting and cruel
