Who carries the world on his shoulders all alone?
Never underestimate the power of mind
I distinguish myself in the tasks I cope with
(The) weight of the world rests on my back

Life shrouds (so) many aspects
And I want to descry them all
Never mind if they're good or bad
They are part of what I am

I conceive!
Myself! A construct to survive!

Empowerment!
David! Takes over Goliath!

An easy defiance will never be enough
Encourage myself with the goals that I achieve
I give it all, I give my blood my sweat my tears
I learn by failure I'll get up and start again

Life shrouds (so) many aspects
And I want to descry them all
Never mind if they're good or bad
They are part of what I am

I conceive!
Myself! A construct to survive!

Empowerment!
David! Takes over! Goliath!

I carry pride within my heart
I feel like a king for the first time
Now that I burned down my whole rotten fortress
The king is dead, long live the king

Now that I burned down my whole rotten fortress
The king is dead, the king is dead, long live the king!
