The sky has turned to grey
Sentenced by force of death
Obey the sacred One
The hybrids that once lived
Inside this world of death
The bleeding still goes on
R.I.P. tear up the corpse
Smashing the carrion
No piece of flesh will last
The sky is filled with blood
My heart belongs to God
A sin forgotten soul
Devoted to one god
And said it would be wrong
With nothingness inside
Fire red, we'll burn the church
Flames rain from hell, restricted warn
We'll tell ourselves we're saved
Prophets beheaded birth
A strong desire, the suffering
We'll tell ourselves we're saved, burning
Conjuring, again in pain
Misery, into sight
Sanity, walk the earth
Come to Salem
Slay your kind, devil's birth
Second day, church of God
Troops of death, attack the church
Come to Salem
Behold the sign, Lucifer
Join the dead, evil ghost
Prophecy, blackest night
Come to Salem
The blame is on you
Revealed by the Holy, the book of the fools
Tear down the chapel
Destroy all their rules, for God is their lie
