Ft. Noni Spitz

As the moonlight shines through the curtains
We're way past the flirting,
I'm ready to do your body like a shift, work it
I promise I won't hurt it, or maybe just a little bit
Cause you like that kinky shit
So please no excuses, we can do it however you wanna do it , girl
So lay back, relax, prepare to let him go
Curl your toes while you og emote ohhs I'm revealing all your secrets, while I dig it out the deepest
Ocean I prefer, swimming through your water
Got that kitty on purr, when I touch her
Now your tongue twisted, you can barely speak a word
I told you I was a beast between the sheets
You didn't believe it, till I got you in position
Now you moaning with them screams
And it's cool, cause I ain't with the judging
No fronting, just chill back and keep bussing

I feel your hand, soft on my skin
Music slow, like slow
Just take your time cause it's yours tonight
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos

Now she telling me her ex, he didn't loved her
Or he didn't understand How to be there when she needed him, he rather be with friends
And they seem so good together but she just don't understand
How things fall apart when that wasn't part of they plans
But I know you didn't drive from Pasadena with them thick ... thighs
And think that I wouldn't try to get between them

See I know why you called, trying to get ...
No excuse, I'm trying to get into you like a parking stall
And I know your body just wanna get even But I'ma make you come and I swear that's the perfect reason
Now baby let me see what you working with Victoria that's my shit, no secret I'm gonna hit
Now baby come out of it, I want me deep in it
And I keep on it, in every spot that you like it tonight
We both gonna finish
What more left is there to say
You gonna sleep good tonight, after a long day

I feel your hand, soft on my skin
Music slow, like slow
Just take your time cause it's yours tonight
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos
Kiss on my spots and tattoos X 2
