"We Don't Talk"

Did you ever think that you were special? Think that you were going to be safe in love?
That you could have a little bit of the magic, but never have to feel the pain of it?
Hey, it's a shame when we stay, but we don't talk. Hey, I'm so lost in the way that we don't talk. No we never. No we don't talk
You used to think that nothing else matters, as long as you were keeping your faith in love. But all my dreams of you are done and shattered, that's something that I just can't take anymore.
And hey, it's a shame, when we stay, but we don't talk.
Hey, I'm so lost in the way that we don't talk. No, we never. No, we don't talk,
No we don't talk, no we don't talk, hey. And hey, it's a shame when we stay, but we don't talk. Hey, I'm so lost in the way that we don't talk, no we never, no we don't talk
