"Great Unknown"

You know that I've been here before,
Packing up my suitcase,
One foot out the door,
We've said it all before,
We're dancing on the ashes,
We don't spark anymore.
Cause everything feels too familiar,
But some things you just never seem to know.

CHORUS

Do we fade out, or burn like the sun,
Do we let it or go or hold on,
Do we see this through together as one,
Do we go it alone into the great unknown?

That was night this beautiful sky,
All the things we have for reason all I have,
Summer used to be memorable,
Cause everything feels too familiar,
But some things you just never seem to know.

CHORUS

Do we fade out, or burn like the sun,
Do we let it or go or hold on,
Do we see this through together as one,
Do we go it alone into the great unknown?

Do we fade out, or burn like the sun,
Do we let it or go or hold on,
Do we see this through together as one,
Do we go it alone into the great unknown?
