The music is what Im seein
The wind not what Im feelin
Takin my time, playin by the rules
I get nervous, I get worried
You get selfish, you grow cold
Passin fields, climbin mountains of gold
Im feelin worthless, I feel stupid
I am tired, Im alone
And you cant see me

Take my hands and take me home
Rip my eyes and follow me home
Take my hands and take me home
Rip my eyes and leave me alone
Let me be quiet
Take my hands and rip me home
Take my life and follow me home
Take my hands and take me home
Rip my eyes no, leave me alone
Take my eyes and rip me home
Live my life and follow me home
Take my hands and take me home
Rip my eyes, no leave me alone
This could be the end

The music is what Im seein
The wind not what Im feelin
I feel worthless
I cant feel your pull anymore
I feel alone
I grow cold
Insignificant, insignificant, I cant feel your pull
