Friends say I'll get over you soon Thoughts of you come back to fill me with gloom Time forgets but I'm not over you yet
There's no sense of asking why
Until the tears run dry
There's no one but you on my mind
Serching for a perfect ending that we'll never find
If we could make it work this time
Years have flown by since you've been gone
This broken heart of mine's been waiting too long All alone wihout you I can't carry on There's no sense of asking why
Until I'm there by your side
There's no one but you on my mind
Searching for a perfect
ending that we'll never find
If we could make it work this time
We could plant tomorrows dreams now together
In a garden to last forever more
All the flowers would grow
From the seeds we'd sow...
There's no one but you on my mind
Searching for a perfect
ending that we'll never find
If we could make it work this time
There's no sense of asking why
Until the tears run dry
I could be there by your side
If you would only change your mind
If we could make it work this time.
