I wrote down, the best part of our story
To whom it may concern...I think your beautiful plan LACKS STYLE!
Imagine what they could do With a little more time and a little more passion You're trying to hard to get a reaction State the words right now to separate
The truth from your intentions Your cold flesh tangled up in snakes
Just as I expected but oh nol don't think so, Save some breath for the ending Why don't you make your move cause your acting like I'm on trial
The pieces are set and the game is emotion Don't you forget the worst is yet to happen.
State the words right now to separate
The truth from your intentions
Your cold flesh tangled up in snakes Just as I expected but oh nol don't think so, Save some breath for the ending [x2]
