"Lets Kill Each Other"

I've been reading everything, the papers and the magazines
Believing every word I read
Way too many mouths to feed, but we can all agree
Believing everybody's better off dead
If you're looking for some inspiration, blast off through the generation

Let's all kill each other
Kill your sisters and kill your brothers
Take the fun out of one another
Let's all kill each other

I'm not having any fun, I'm sick and tired of everyone
I wonder what's the right thing to do Knives and guns for everyone, no everyone protects someone
At least that's what I learned from you Just can't trust anyone else, gonna have to do it ourselves

Let's all kill each other
Kill your sisters and kill your brothers
Take the fun out of one another
Let's all kill each other

Let's all kill each other
Kill your sisters and kill your brothers
Take the fun out of one another
Let's all kill each other

Maybe we could talk it out
Maybe I could shut you down
Everything's so complicated
I can't believe how long we've waited
I can try to figure it out
I know what to do about it
I know what to do about it
Let's all kill each other
If you're looking for a little reaction,
Here comes your coming attraction

Let's all kill each other
Kill your sisters and kill your brothers
Take the fun out of one another
Let's all kill each other

Let's all kill each other
Kill your sisters and kill your brothers
Take the fun out of one another
Let's all kill each other.
