You might be right
You might be wrong
You might just think your life has gone on for too long
Your knees get weak
Your heart grows cold
And your tired of doing everything you're told

And nothing can take away from you
And what you take what you've been through
Stand up and be strong
Stand up and be strong
It wont take long
You cant go on
Stand up and be strong

You might have to fight
You might have to cry
You might have to cry
You might have to fight
Stand up and be strong

You live in the hills
You take too many pills
If you've lost the thrill against your own will
Stand up and be strong

And nothing can take away from you
And what you take
What you know what you've got to do
Stand up and be strong
Stand up and be strong
It wont take long you cant go on
Stand up and be strong

If you get all depressed
When you get undressed
If youre life is a mess
Remember you're blessed stand up and be Stand up and be
Stand up and be strong
Stand up and be strong

It wont take long
You cant go on
Stand up and be strong
Stand up and be strong
Stand up and be strong
You cant go on it wont take long stand up and be strong
