I've been searching, I've been searching
I've been searching for long time
To find someone to be mine, oh mine, yeah
I never thought he would come along, no
Now that you're here, all my worries are gone

Sweet you, sweet you, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody else will do
You're just the one I've been looking for
You're just the one I've been looking for

I didn't know how long it would take
But good things come to those who wait
But I couldn't asked for anything more
You're everything I've been looking for

Sweet you, sweet you, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody else will do
You're just the one I've been looking for
You're just the one I've been looking for

Night's got dark, yeah, day's got long
My mind is weak but my heart stays strong
You came along and you rescued me
But, oh, no, no, baby, don't you set me free

Sweet you, sweet you, nobody, nobody
Nobody, nobody else will do
You're just the one I've been looking for
You're just the one I've been looking for

Searched all day, honey, yeah, I couldn't find her
Searched all day, dear, I couldn't find, no
Searched all day I couldn't find her

Any day I find my baby
And when I found her I'll put my arms around her
I said, baby, hold me, baby, oh, baby
Oh, baby, hold me, so glad I found you
