The light of the dawn has no meaning
Your lost in the haze of the night
The strength that should be there within you
Is wasted and all left behind
I can see what it is you believe in
I can see you've got so much to hide
Everything you touch has no meaning
You need something to keep you alive
I can be what you want me to be
Don't just give me the words
Don't be setting it free
I'll be fine, I'll be safe, I'll hold on to faith, right here, yeah right here oh

Uh oh, uh oh oh

Uh oh, uh oh oh

Right here

Look through the haze of the evening
Let it open up and free your mind
It's time to jump in with no reason
It is time to see if fate can decide
I can be what you want me to be
Don't just give me the words
