

Verah Falls

"Pariah"

Visit "Pariah" on MotoLyrics.com

All of his demons
Are inching their way
Through the cracks of the floor.
They're crawling at his
Bedsheets and morals
Just to drag him away.

From an honest life.

OH! feet don't fail him now
He's running from his troubles
And the promises he made.

He chose
A bottle and a cloud of smoke,
In exchange for ghosts.

I'll have you know,
God gave up on you.
I'll have you know,
God gave up on you.

I know,
That it was easier for you to walk away.(walk away)
In the dark of the night
When no one could see your shame.
(When no one could see your shame)

But you can't just turn your back.
And pretend that you'll erase the past.
But it's such a shame,
A shame that you won't see,
All your mistakes that I've learnt from.

As the monster you made me
I hope when you look into our eyes
You realize,
We were better off without you.

I'm more of a man than you could ever be.

To this day,
That phone call still haunts me.
You can't make amends
After everything that you've put as through.
I wish I could say
I forgive you for walking out on us.
I wish I could tell you
That I love you
But that would make me a liar like you.
But after making friends
With all the characters from our bedtime stories.
You tried to buy my forgiveness.
I never wanted the money,
I wanted a farther.

I know,
That it was easier for you to walk away.(walk away)
In the dark of the night
When no one could see your shame.
(When no one could see your shame)

But you can't just turn your back.
And pretend that you'll erase the past.
But it's such a shame,
A shame that you won't see,
All your mistakes that I've learnt from.

Goodnight
Dead man.

Visit Verah Falls page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.