Is there any chance you'd let me prove to you the things that would help you know that I'm true I guess I'm at a point where I see clearly that this is the last time you'll believe I'm fully alive when I'm
On the crest of Mary
On the crest of Mary
Fall, I've fallen now
Lights are all on at home waiting for you I'm here with a confidence you'll believe in me when I'm back on
On the crest of Mary
On the crest of Mary
Fall, I've fallen now
