Poke me with your talk, Ben, fuck

I'm too close to decide

Seems like the page never lied

Do you see the fiction at your front door?

This time it's not like before

Just like your shadow in public

Your secret floodlights the floor

You got too nervous and left it

And now you're looking for more

Reads just like revenge fiction

Some 40's novel re-lived

Reads just like revenge fiction

No more excuses to give

No more excuses to give

Don't be confused by my signal

I'm only here to collect

Better lifeless than nervous
