Sandy is walking down the avenue,
Down past all the boys,
But she doesn't feel a thing.

Tonight is her last chance,
Tonight is her last try,
Tonight is her last shot at love.

Sandy is dancing under the moonlight,
Sandy is dancing under the stars,
But she doesn't feel a thing.

Tonight is her last chance,
Tonight is her last try,
Tonight is her last shot at love.

Sandy is walking home,
And Sandy is all alone,
And she won't be coming back tomorrow.

Because tonight was her last chance,
Tonight was her last try,
Tonight was her last shot at love
