She is a hero in disguise
Whenever I watch her I'm mesmerized, Oh...
And when I'm near her I can see
Why I believe in anything, oh

She can play she can move
Oh Athena is it you
She can play she can fly
Aphrodite come to life

And she makes me makes makes me
Makes me feel this way.
Cause she can play

She's a fighter with one goal
Full of desire To win it all, Oh
She's a survivor she won't fall
This I know, this I know, oh oh

She can play she can move
Oh Athena is it you
She can play she can fly
Aphrodite come to life

And she makes me makes makes me
Makes me feel this way.

When she plays, all my troubles seem to fade away,
When she plays I'm reminded there are better days,
better days...

She can play she can move
Oh Athena is it you
She can play she can fly
Aphrodite come to life

And she makes me makes makes me
Makes me feel this way.
Cause She can play...she can play....
