Bring the walls down
Draw back the curtain look inside
There's a monster in disguise
I cannot see beyond their lies
If there's a God he would deny
I must admit I'm nervous of what's yet to come
Have I shown up to this war with and unloaded gun?
Let it go

(Chorus)
Time to say I cannot fall down
I will not fall down
Break away
Break your walls down
Break your walls down

This is my last chance to fly through an uncertain sky Can't doubt myself anymore and give in to what's inside
I must admit I'm nervous, but now it's time to try
This monster's been here too long so fuck a long goodbye
Let it go

(Chorus)

And I hate to say goodbye to all I've been before
I cannot question why and face it

(Chorus)
